COMMERCE BOARD BANS UNION RAILROADS
Washington, Jan. 12.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today announced that it had ordered the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who refused to accept the commission's order to operate under the new law, to be excluded from the interstate commerce law. The order was issued after the commission had heard testimony from the Brotherhood and the Interstate Commerce Commission. The commission said that it would be better served by the exclusion of the Brotherhood from the interstate commerce law.

SCHOOL FIRE DRIVES OUT 50 FAMILIES

The fire, which broke out in the school building, drove out 50 families. The fire, which broke out in the school building, drove out 50 families.

HOUGHTON TO BE ENVOY TO BRITAIN

Washington, Jan. 12.—Albano B. Houghton of New York, now ambassador to Germany, has been selected by President Coolidge to succeed Ambassador Kellogg as London.

Mr. Houghton has attended many of the conferences in European capital made necessary in the work of rehabilitation and has first-hand knowledge of almost every problem in which the country has an interest. He is sixty-one years old and was born in Cambridge, Mass.

Before entering Congress Mr. Houghton was a glass manufacturer in Orange, N. Y. The resignation of Secretary Hughes and the appointment of his successor was announced simultaneously. Attorney General Stone was chosen as a Supreme Court justice on the day Justice McKenna's resignation was announced, and Charles W. Warren was selected as Attorney General within a few days after Mr. Stone's resignation was decided upon.

MATE BROUGHT FIANCEE TO HOME, WIFE CHARGES

Although they were married but a few months, following a rapid-fire romance which started during the war, her husband returned home one night with another woman, whom he introduced to her as his fiancée, with the startling news that he was going to marry her.

The New January Model Nemo Circlet $1.00

A new Nemo is always rather a thrilling announcement. The skill of the Nemo designers and artificers has extended to another cleverly conceived garment, placed on the market in January as a special recognition of the new year.

Artfully placed encircling darts and lack of seams assure snug, figure molding lines. Pink striped novelty cloth contributes to appearance and to durability.
